

WATERLOO PAIR EARN ICE FINAL

The Iowa High School Hockey League's championship will stay in Waterloo. That was decided Saturday night at the Des Moines Ice Arena when Columbus of Waterloo and archrival Waterloo won semifinal games in the State hockey tournament to advance to today's title game at 4:30 p.m.

Waterloo, the defending champion, edged Hoover-Roosevelt of Des Moines, 4-2, in Saturday night's final game on Craig Lorenzen's tie-breaking goal 6 minutes 9 seconds into the second period and on Keith Whittemore's goal 5:42 into the final period. Whittemore's goal was his second of the contest.
