

J.V. hockey team captures tourney in Ames

Mason City's junior varsity high school hockey team had a big turnaround in winning a tournament in Ames the past weekend. After opening with a 5-4 overtime win over Dubuque, Mason City lost 5-2 to Ames and 7-5 to Urbandale to finish fourth of four teams in Saturday's round-robin action.

But Sunday, Mason City beat Ames, the round-robin leader, 3-0 as goalie Dan Duda got the shutout and then topped Urbandale 10-3 to win the title.

Tony Gregor led Mason City with 8 goals and 4 assists in the five games. Bill Oglesby added 3 goals and 5 assists, Eric Thompson had 4 and 3, Kyle Matson 2 of each, Tim Merrill 3 goals, Jeff Kleven a goal and 2 assists and David Beard 2 assists.
