

They made Warriors winners

These are the key players who brought the Waterloo Warriors their second state high school hockey championship as well as the Iowa High School Hockey League championship this winter. Left to right, in front, are all-state defenseman Darell Neelans, all-state goaltender Brant Gaede and all-state center Gary Wilson; in back, are center

Brian Cook, all-state honor roll voted the team's most valuable player; all-state wingman Jim Tyler; defenseman John Jackson, all-state honor roll; all-state defenseman Doug Dietz, goalie Brad Neilsen, all-star honor roll, and all-state winger Jim Hayes.