

Hockey: On the ice

The Des Moines Capitols finished third in the Iowa high school hockey league tournament.

Goaltender Nick Fasano led the team to a 2-0 victory over Waterloo and the Capitols beat Sioux City, 4-2. Despite defeating Mason City four times in the regular season, the Capitols bowed to them, 5-1.

"Jason McCollum and Jake Bailiff worked really hard to lead the team," coach Steve Nelson said. "We played well, we just came up a little short."

Fasano, McCollum, Pat Miller and Jim Krueger were named to the Chicago Showcase team, a select group of players who will travel next month to Chicago to play against other regional all-star teams.
