

High School Hockey

Sixth-seeded Mason City, Iowa, defeated the No. 1-seeded Omaha Junior Lancers 3-2 Sunday to win the Iowa High School State Hockey League tournament at Hitchcock Ice Rink.

The Junior Lancers won the league regular-season title with a 24-1-1 record and, including their tournament games, finished with a 26-2-1 mark.

In the championship game, Mason City goalie Isaac Sorensen made 22 saves and earned the tournament most valuable player award. Jason Anderegg scored the winning goal in the third period. Jeremiah Johnson and Jed Ortmeier scored for the Junior Lancers.

In the game for seventh place, the Omaha Gladiators defeated Waterloo 2-1 in overtime as Adam Collette scored the winning goal.

In other games, Des Moines took third place by defeating Sioux City 4-2, and Dubuque beat Kansas City, Mo., 8-4 to finish fifth.