

Weather leads Warriors to forfeit game

OMAHA, Neb. — The Waterloo Warriors settled for eighth place in the Iowa High School Hockey League Tournament Sunday when they forfeited their final game to Kansas City.

Transportation problems caused by the weekend winter storm prevented the locals from reaching the tournament site. So Waterloo came in eighth, and Kansas City received seventh.

Sioux City claimed the IHSHL championship Sunday with a 3-2 victory over the Omaha Jr. Lancers.

The Omaha Gladiators won the third-place game over Des Moines, also by a 3-2 margin. It was also a 3-2 decision in the fifth-place contest, with Mason City edging Dubuque.
