

Mason City bumps Warriors

DES MOINES — Postseason action wasn't all that the Waterloo Warriors hoped it would be as Shawn Weinke's team was shut out 4-0 in the first round of the Iowa High School Hockey League state tournament Friday afternoon.

Mason City scored its first goal just 26 seconds into the game, and things didn't get any better for Waterloo. In the second period, it took the Mohawks just 56 second to up the score to 2-0.

The Warriors committed seven penalties in the second period and, as a result, the Mohawks scored two power-play goals, one of them coming when Mason City held a five-on-three advantage.

Waterloo managed just eight
