

Waterloo rocks M.C.

AMES – Very little went right for the Mohawk Hockey Club in the opening round game of the MSHSL Tournament on Friday.

Mason City wound up with an 11-2 loss to Waterloo.

The Mohawks were first on the scoreboard when Joe Burgmeier found the back of the net halfway through the first period.

The Warriors responded scoring nine unanswered goals spread across the first and second periods.

The Warriors added two more in the third while the Mohawks scored just once.

Mason City moved to the consolation bracket and will square off against Lincoln at 9 a.m. today.

FRIDAY'S RESULTS

Game 1: #4 Omaha 1, #5 Des Moines Capitals 6

Game 2: #3 Waterloo 11, #6 Mason City 2

Game 3: #2 Kansas City 3, #7 Lincoln 2

Game 4: - #1 Des Moines Oak Leafs 5, #8 Sioux City

2

TODAY'S CONSOLATION SEMIFINALS

Game 5 (9 a.m.) – Mason City vs Lincoln

Game 6 (11 a.m.) – Omaha vs Sioux City

TODAY'S CHAMPIONSHIP SEMIFINALS

Game 7 (1 p.m.) – Kansas City vs Waterloo

Game 8 (3 p.m.) – Des Moines Oak Leafs vs Des

Moines Capitals