Warriors finish season in fourth place

AMES — The Waterloo Warriors lost their third-place game and saw their season come to an end Sunday at the Ames Ice Arena.

The Omaha Junior Lancers scored all three of their goals in the second period to win a 3-2 game and take third place in the Midwest

High School Hockey League Tournament. The Warriors settle for fourth place.

Omaha scored its three goals in a span of less than five minutes to take a 3-0 lead. Joshua Almaraz and Kyle Schott scored for the Warriors, but they couldn't find an equalizer in the last 13 minutes of the game.

Waterloo finishes the year with a record of 18-10.
