Warriors bounce back, 10-2

AMES — Waterloo rebounded from a disappointing loss in the quarterfinals to blow away the Des Moines Oak Leafs 10-2 Saturday in the consolation bracket of the Midwest High School Hockey League tournament.

Edged 3-2 Friday by Omaha, the Warriors exploded for four first-period goals Saturday, then added four more in the second period to blow the game open.

Kyle Schott started it just 31 seconds into the game, and he made it 2-0 at the 6:49 mark with a short-handed tally. Lake Powell scored on a power play and Conor Luck kicked off his four-goal game by scoring with just :05 remaining in the period.

Luck tacked on three more goals in the second period, including two in the final :24, and Cameron Pries scored Waterloo's second shorthander as the Warriors built an 8-2 lead.

Nolin Bartlett and Schott capped the scoring in the final period.

Luck finished with four goals two assists, Schott had three goals and one assist, and Pries had a goal and four assists.

Waterloo will play Mason City Sunday morning for fifth place.
