Warriors finish with 3-1 win

AMES — Waterloo broke a 1-1 tie in the second period and held off Mason City 3-1

Sunday in the fifth-place game at the Midwest High School Hockey League tournament.

Noah Roach turned assists from Kyle Schott and Lake Powell into the game's first goal just 1 minute, 41 seconds into the contest.

Mason City tied it 5:31 into the second while skating shorthanded, but Conor Luck and Schott scored midway through the period for a 3-1 advantage the Warriors did not relinquish. Powell had another assist on Schott's goal while Brandon Yearling and Kurt Reidy set up Luck's tally.

Sam Metcalf stopped 20 of the 21 shots he faced in the Waterloo nets and the Warriors killed off five penalties.

Kansas City defeated Dubuque 4-1 to win the championship, while the Des Moines Capitals edged Omaha 4-3 for third place.
