Mohawk Hockey Club lands 5 on all-league team

The Mohawk Hockey Club put forth one of its best regular seasons in years this season, and on Monday the Mohawks were rewarded for it.

The Mohawks, who are the No. 3 seed in the Midwest High School Hockey League tournament this coming weekend, had five players named to the all-star team.

Senior Zach Jimenez was a unanimous first-team selection as a forward and senior Jaxon Jones made the first team as a defenseman. Jimenez led the Mohawks with 40 total points (21 goals and 19 assists) and Jones finished with two goals and 14 assists.

Also for the Mohawks, seniors Jacob Lang, Nate Lassise and Cole Baskerville were each named all-stars as well on the second team.

Lang was second on the team with 29 points (13 goals and 16 assists), Baskerville tallied 14 goals and 14 assists, and Lassise had 14 goals and 13 assists.

The Mohawks open tournament play Friday vs. sixth-seeded Omaha at 2 p.m. in Ames.
